The Fine Print

In signing this form, I agree to allow my child (named above) participate in the Music Theatre of Idaho Summer workshop 2022 program. I agree to provide transportation to and from the workshop for my child. I agree to deliver my child on time and pick them up promptly at the conclusion of the workshop each day. I understand that my child will be cast in a role only after the workshop has begun and I agree to be supportive and nurturing during the casting and rehearsal process. I understand that The Music Theatre of Idaho will do everything possible to make sure my child is safe, but sometimes accidents happen. I agree to allow the MTI staff to provide first aid for my child in the case of a minor accident, and to allow the transportation of my child to an appropriate medical facility in case of an emergency. I understand that participation in the workshop is voluntary and that attendance is expected at 100%. If an absence must occur, on an emergency basis, I understand that I, as the responsible party, must notify the workshop supervisor before the absence occurs. If two or more absences occur, no matter what the reason, a child may be pulled from a role, or an understudy may be assigned. No performance, for anyone is guaranteed. Theatre is hard work, and everyone must pull their own weight to make the production happen. Students may be dismissed from the workshop for poor attendance, behavioral issues, use of improper language, harming others or themselves. No matter what the reason, there are no refunds.
